

THE GREEK HERITAGE OF PONTUS

Interdisciplinary Perspectives

Jena, 19 May 2025

The Greek heritage of Pontus, rooted in northeastern Turkey, faces critical challenges, including the decline of definitely endangered Pontic Greek dialect. Our conference invites scholars to explore the linguistic, cultural, and historical dimensions of Pontic Greek heritage, focusing on the state of Pontic Greek in its place of origin and the diaspora, developments in Pontic music, and historical, ethnological, and diasporic perspectives on Pontic Greeks.

Organisation:

Isabella Greisinger: isabella.greisinger@uni-jena.de

Thede Kahl: thede.kahl@uni-jena.de

Vassilios Spyropoulos: vspyrop@phil.uoa.gr

FRIEDRICH-SCHILLER-UNIVERSITÄT
JENA

Institute of Slavistic & Caucasus Studies
Research Group Bessarion

